

Black River Trail Scenic Byway Corridor Management Plan

Table of Contents

Introduction.....	1
Overview.....	3
Rationale for Creating Two Byways from One.....	4
Vision, Theme, and Intrinsic Qualities	5-8
Goals.....	9-10
Scenic Byway Program and Definitions.....	11
Project Management Structure.....	12
Steering Committee and Local Action Committee Lists.....	13-17
Public Participation and Outreach Efforts	18-21
Regional and Local Support of Byway Planning.....	22
Official Route and Connections with Other NYS Scenic Byways.....	23-26
Counties, Towns, Villages, Cities and Byway Route Numbers.....	27-28
Byway Map.....	29
Resource Inventory and Map Key.....	30-37
Special Tourism Sites, Attractions, Services, and Events.....	38-41
Special Tourism Sites, Attractions, Services, and Events Typology.....	42-44
Regional and Local Histories of the Byway Area.	45-66
Byway Description: The Visitor’s Experience	67-70

Economic and Community Development71-77

Tourism Development, Marketing, and Promotion78-82

Recreation83-89

Signage and Interpretation90-95

Transportation, Safety, and Community Design96-102

Stewardship103-105

Regional Cooperation and Implementation Strategy106-110

Implementation Plan: Goals, Objectives, and Actions111-133

Related Programs, Projects, Plans, Studies, and Reports.....134-141

Attachments*

Section	Title
Attachment I:	Local Advisory Committee Documents
Attachment II:	Regional and Local Support Letters and Resolutions
Attachment III:	Publicity: News Releases, Media Clippings, and Newsletters
Attachment IV:	NYSDOT Region 7, Designated Bicycle Routes
Attachment V:	Snowmobile Trail Maps
Attachment VI:	Recreation and Paddling Guides

 Please note: Attachments are available in the Master Copy only and are not available on the CD version. The Master Copy is available for viewing at Adirondack North Country Association’s office located at 67 Main Street, Saranac Lake, NY 12983.*