 - Responses are only used to produce statistics

Design for 2020 Census

The 2020 Census: A New Design for the 21st Century

Motivate People to Respond

Conduct a nation-wide communications and partnership campaign

- Maximize outreach using traditional and new media
- Target ads to specific audiences
- Work with trusted sources to inspire participation.

Establish Where to Count

Identify all addresses where people could live

- Conduct a 100% review and update of the nation's address list
- Minimize field work with in-office updating
- Use multiple data sources to identify areas with address changes
- Get local government input

Count Everyone Once
In the Right Place

INTERNET SELF-RESPONSE

Count the Population

Collect data from all households, including group and unique living arrangements

- Make it easy for people to respond anytime, anywhere
- Encourage people to use the new online response option
- Use the most cost-effective strategy to contact and count nonrespondents
- Knock on doors only when necessary
- Streamline in-field census-taking

Release Census Results

Process and Provide Census Data

- Deliver apportionment counts to the President by December 31, 2020

2020 Census – It Is Safe

- Private information is never published, including names, addresses (including GPS coordinates), Social Security Numbers, and telephone numbers.
- The Census Bureau collects information to produce statistics. Personal information collected by the Census Bureau cannot be used against respondents by any government agency or court.
- Census Bureau employees are sworn to protect confidentiality for life.
- Violating Title 13 is a serious federal crime. Violators are subject to severe penalties, including a federal prison sentence of up to five years, a fine of up to $250,000, or both.

2020 Census – It Is Easy

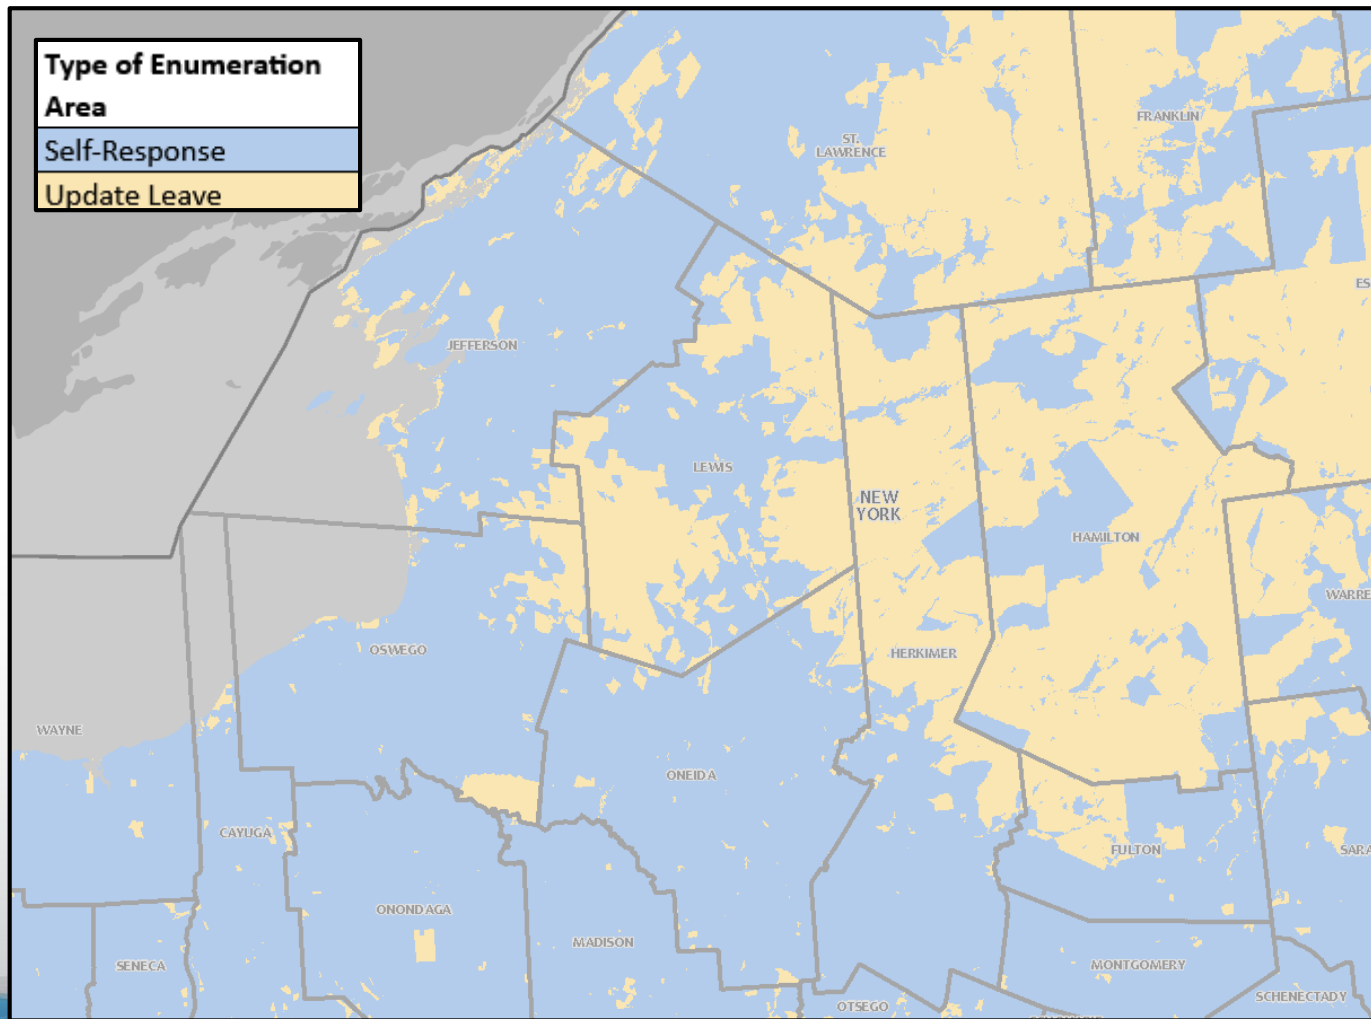

- Four ways to respond in 2020
 - Online
 - Phone
 - Paper
 - Personal Visit by Census Employee
- Internet Choice/Internet Push
- Staggered Mailing
- Multiple Languages
- Name, age, DOB, race and origin, Hispanic origin, citizenship, relationship, gender, tenure, operational questions (pop count, name, phone number, overcount, undercount)

Self Response

- The Census Bureau will mail (or hand deliver) invitations to complete the 2020 Census in March 2020.
- The majority of the country (~80 percent) will receive a letter during the first mailing requesting the housing unit complete the census online, using the Internet Self-Response method (called “Internet First”).
- The remainder of the country will receive a letter and paper form during the first mailing (called “Internet Choice”).
- All non-responding housing units will receive a letter and paper form during the fourth mailing.
