Tug Hill Local Government Conference Cancellation Reminder; Some Sessions Available on Website

WATERTOWN, NY – A reminder to all Tug Hill Commission Local Government Conference registrants that the Thursday, March 26, 2020 event at Jefferson Community College is cancelled. Several speakers were able to provide their sessions electronically, and are available at www.tughill.org/services/training/local-government-conference/2020-conference-presentations/.

Registrations paid for online through Eventbrite have been refunded to credit cards. Please contact Gwen Decker at gwen@tughill.org if the credit has not appeared on your account. Registrations paid for by check have not been refunded yet, as all commission employees are currently working from home. Checks will be mailed back to individuals and communities as soon as commission staff returns to the office.

The New York State Tug Hill Commission is a non-regulatory state agency charged with helping local governments, organizations, and citizens shape the future of the region, especially its environment and economy. The commission uses a grassroots approach to build local capacity and provide technical assistance in land use planning, community development, and natural resource management.
