Tug Hill Commission Accepting Nominations for Community Recognition Award

Watertown, NY - The Tug Hill Commission will start accepting nominations on April 1 for a second round of community recognitions awards. Last year's recipients were the village of Deferiet and Martinsburg Historical Society. Awardees will be recognized at the commission's 2022 annual dinner, scheduled for Thursday, October 20 at Zero Dock Street in Carthage. A full program description and detailed list of criteria are available on the commission website at tughill.org/about/tug-hill-community-recognition-award/. Overall, the award is looking for local governments or groups that have gone above and beyond to implement a project that has made a real impact in their area.

Nominations will be accepted in two categories: community group efforts (not affiliated with a local government), and governmental efforts. Projects must have been completed within the last five years. Competitive projects will incorporate many of the following elements:

1. Built local capacity
2. Promoted actions or projects in partnership with others
3. Were well supported by the community
4. Can serve as a model to be replicated in other areas

A selection committee made up of the chairs of the region's five councils of government, the commission board chair, and commission executive director will review applications and decide on award winners.

Nominations are due by June 1, and should be emailed to Katie Malinowski, katie@tughill.org. Please contact the office at (315) 785-2380 with any questions.
