The Tug Hill Commission will be throwing a poster contest as part of their celebration of serving Tug Hill communities and governments for fifty years. The contest is open to high school students within the various school districts in the Tug Hill geographic region. The winner of this contest will have their submission displayed on the cover of the Tug Hill Commission's 2023 Local Government Conference brochure.

The theme of the poster contest will be, “What does Tug Hill mean to you?” This could reflect the Tug Hill landscape, its weather and seasons, the relationship to its many communities, or anything that is otherwise significant to students' lived experiences. Please use your imagination and be creative!

Submission Criteria

Your submission must meet the following criteria in order to be judged:

- This contest is open to any students Grades 9 through 12 from school districts within the Tug Hill Region (Adirondacks, APW, Camden, Carthage, Central Square, Copenhagen, Holland Patent, Lowville, Remsen, Sandy Creek, South Jefferson, South Lewis)
- Submissions must be original works
- Submissions must not contain clip art or any copyrighted material
- Submissions must be in portrait orientation (suitable for an 8.5” x 11” printout)
- Submissions may be in any 2D format (paint, watercolor, ink, charcoal, digital artwork, etc); however, photography will not be accepted unless it is incorporated into mixed media
