The Wonderful World of Owls Tug Hill Winter Wildlife Webinar Series, Part 4: April 30, 7 p.m.

WATERTOWN, NEW YORK – The Tug Hill Commission invites the public to join a webinar on Thursday, April 30 at 7 p.m. to learn all about owls. Registration can be completed at tinyurl.com/WWWRegistration2026, and a Zoom link will be sent along with a registration confirmation email.

This webinar will highlight several species of owls that can be found in the Tug Hill and North Country region, and how to identify them. Participants will hear from Linda Gibbs, Community Programs Director at the Tug Hill Tomorrow Land Trust, and Irene Mazzocchi, retired Region 6 NYSDEC Wildlife Biologist, as they address challenges that local owls face and offer steps on how to help maintain and even increase owl populations.

This webinar is part of the Tug Hill Winter Wildlife Webinar Series, which explores the region's diverse wildlife and conservation efforts. This session marks the end of the 2026 series. Past presentations can be found here.
